Professional Development Alternatives

Funded by Florida Department of Education Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services

PDA is for you, if you are...

- a general or exceptional educator seeking points for recertification
- wanting to enhance your ability to teach learners with diverse needs
- preparing for the ESE K-12 subject area exam
- teaching out-of-field and need professional development points
- targeting an area on your professional development plan

Professional Development Alternatives (PDA) is offered through the Bureau of Exceptional Education & Student Services, the Bureau of Educator Certification, and the Florida Department of Education. Designed with the busy educator in mind, the modules combine quality online instruction for self-paced study with ongoing communication with expert local facilitators, group or virtual meetings with colleagues, classroom-related assessment tasks to ensure successful mastery of the competencies, consistent user-friendly format/organization, and technology support. PDA professional development opportunities are offered at no cost to you.

Modules currently being offered locally are:

Foundations of Exceptional Student Education (60 MPPs)

Transition (60 MPPs)

Positive Behavior Support (60 MPPs)

Assessment and Evaluation (60 MPPs)

Introduction to Differentiating Instruction: Responding to All Learners (12 MPPs)
